

UTSOA 2020 Graduates: BSID CIDA Student Achievement

Attrition/Retention

BSID Freshmen: Twelve freshmen began in fall 2016 as Interior Design majors; eleven students (91.6%) remained after the first year. Attrition out of the BSID program after the first year was 8.4% (one student); this student transferred into a major outside of the School of Architecture.

BSID Transfer students: Three internal transfer students joined the first-year cohort in fall 2016 and all three remained with the BSID program (100% retention of internal transfer student).

Graduation Rates

Nineteen students graduated with the BSID in 2020. Eleven graduates entered the program as freshmen in 2016 and graduated within four years. Of the remaining eight graduates, three students were in the fall 2015 BSID freshman cohort, three students entered the program as internal transfers in fall 2016, and two students entered the program as internal transfers in summer 2017, and all graduated within five years of enrolling at UT.

Job Placement Rates

Approximately six months after graduation, a portion of the BSID graduates responded to the Career Services' Employments Survey and indicated having entered the design profession at the entry level.
